

CASS GOTTLIEB

AIA, LEED® AP, Principal

Over the past 30 years, Cass Gottlieb has developed a reputation for providing professional and creative architectural services, which sensitively respond to the programmatic needs of numerous private sector and non-profit clients. Prior to joining KANN Partners in 1993, Ms. Gottlieb managed her own architectural practice for 10 years. She also worked as Project Director for Baltimore City's Otterbein Homestead Project, a nationally acclaimed neighborhood rehabilitation program.

Ms. Gottlieb is active in a host of community organizations, and holds leadership positions on a variety of non-profit boards, both locally and nationally.
